Surrender of salary: Any salary surrendered by the employee to the Central Government, under the Voluntary Surrender of Salaries (Exemption from Taxation) Act, will not be included in his total income.

Tax Free salary: Tax free salary means employer himself pays the tax due on his employees. This tax is to be added to the salary of the employee.

Foregoing of salary: If an employee waives the right to receive his salary it will be considered as application of income and is taxable in his hands.

Basis of Charge [Section 15]

Following incomes shall be chargeable to income tax under the head 'Salaries':

1. Any salary due whether received or not
 2. Any salary received or allowed whether due or not
 3. Any arrears of salary not charged to tax in earlier years.
- If any salary paid in advance is included in the total income of any previous year, it shall not be included again in the total income of the previous when the salary becomes due.
 - Any salary, bonus, remuneration received by partner from its firm is not taxable under the head 'Salaries'. Instead such amount is taxable under the head PGBP.
